This course is specifically focused on training to take the JLPT N3 or N2 exams.

The four-week course will study JLPT specific kanji, grammar, reading comprehension and listening exercises in detail.

Lessons take place for 3 hours a day, however, the course involves a lot of homework, and students should be prepared for around 3 hours a day of necessary class preparation, homework and self-study.

The school has a large private study room in the facility that you can have access to anytime for quiet, focused preparation and our friendly team are happy to support you in anyway possible. Some students also choose to take the morning Standard Course lessons in addition.

Classes are based on the practice and preparation you do each day, so this course is really tailored for those who wish to study especially hard for the JLPT.

Includes:

3 hours of JLPT class time each day.

Lessons on listening comprehension, kanji, grammar and reading.

Use of school facilities between 9am and 10pm.

Optional Extras:

3 additional hours of Standard Course each morning.

School activities.

4 week price 144,000JPY

*22,000JPY registration fee
and 4,000JPY textbook fee are additional.
